Domestic Flights: October 1st deadline for REAL ID

Beginning on October 1, residents of every U.S. state and territory will be required to present a REAL ID-compliant driver license or ID card, or another form of ID accepted by the Transportation Security Administration, to board federally regulated domestic flights. Missouri achieved full implementation of its REAL ID program in 2019. Remember to check your driver's license before you fly so there are no surprises at the airport.

DO I NEED ONE?

YES

- Flying domestically
- Accessing federal facilities, military bases and federal courthouses
- Entering nuclear power plants

NO

- Driving
- Voting or Registering to Vote
- State Purposes
- Age Verification
- You hold another form of identification that meets federal requirements, such as a valid U.S. passport or passport card
